Jules Ajodha, Vice-President.

Heads of Government of the Associate States of the Community in attendance were: the Hon. Ralph T. O'Neal, Chief Minister of the British Virgin Islands and the Hon. Derek Taylor, Chief Minister of the Turks and Caicos Islands.

Heads of International Organisations present at the Conference were: His Excellency, Chief Emeka Anyaoku, Secretary-General of the Commonwealth; His Excellency, Dr. César Gaviria, Secretary-General of the Organisation of American States; Dr. Jacques Diouf, Director-General of the Food and Agriculture Organisation; His Excellency Dr. Simon Duarte, Secretary-General of the Association of Caribbean States and Mr. Carlos Moneta, Permanent Secretary of SELA.

The Hon. Derek Hanekom, Minister of Agriculture and Land Affairs of the Republic of South Africa represented His Excellency President Nelson Mandela and Ambassador Joseph Verner Reed, represented the Secretary-General of the United Nations, His Excellency Mr. Boutros Boutros Ghali.

Messages were received from the Secretary-General of the United Nations and the Governments of the Democratic People's Republic of Korea, the Dominican Republic, Japan, the Republic of Costa Rica, the Republic of India and the Republic of Venezuela.

The Rt. Hon. Owen Arthur, Prime Minister of Barbados and host Prime Minister, addressed the Opening Ceremony, warmly welcoming his colleagues Heads of Government and challenging the Conference "to redefine and refocus the everlasting interests of the Caribbean Region in our dealings with the international community."

>His Excellency Dr. Cheddie Jagan, President of Guyana and outgoing Chairman of the Conference, urged the continuation of the Region's quest for relief from the debt burden; the Community's continued advocacy of a Regional Development Fund within the framework of the Free Trade Area of the Americas; the pursuance of the fight to ensure an acceptable resolution of the banana issue' and the endorsement of the New Global Human Order as an all encompassing mechanism to secure the Community's future prosperity.

The Hon. Lester Bird, Prime Minister of Antigua and Barbuda and current Chairman of the Conference delivered the feature address in which he posited the “need to return to the concept of a Caribbean Commission as proposed by the West Indian Commission... The Work of such a Commission would greatly enhance the decision-making process in CARICOM and considerably aid Heads of Government to focus on issues which require their specific attention to move the integration movement forward, and by doing so, improve the prospect of a better life for the Caribbean people.”

The Opening Ceremony was also addressed by the newest member of the Conference, Dr. the Hon. Vaughan Lewis, Prime Minister of Saint Lucia. Dr. Lewis opined that “Free Trade has become the central theme of international economic relations, and in the rush to give market forces the freest rein possible, traditional alliances and friendships sometimes appear to have fallen by the wayside. The continuing diplomatic assault on the arrangements under which Saint Lucia and other Caribbean countries market their bananas in the European Union is a case in point”.

In his statement, the Secretary-General of CARICOM, Mr. Edwin W. Carrington, stressed that “we as small countries now need to muster all our resources of speed and tactical skill to hold out own” in the race to secure a place in the twenty-first century. “To do so however, the regional body politic must increasingly move in unison and be honed to the highest possible degree of uniformity”.

Heads of Government conferred the Community's Triennial Award for Women on the Hon. Dr. Lucille Mathurin-Mair, O.J. a national of Jamaica, for her lifetime of selfless and dedicated service as a scholar, diplomat, international public servant and activist for women's rights.

THE GLOBAL CONTEXT

Heads of Government were acutely aware that their Meeting was taking place against the backdrop of an international environment which presented an ever increasing number of complex challenges. It was therefore imperative for the Region to devise a qualitatively different approach to international economic and political issues and to develop a more effective decision-making capacity in order to promote its prosperity.

The new approach would need to recognise that as a result of globalisation, production units and capital traversed the globe in response only to market forces. In addition the intensification of regionalism and given rise to the establishment of huge trading blocs as nations, both in keeping with the economic globalisation process and also in defence against it, seek to integrate their economies on a scale hitherto unknown. The communications revolution had been an important factor in the dramatic and rapid transformation of the structure of the world economy.

Against this background, they considered and agreed to the following:

Agricultural Development

Heads of Government, in a Special Session dedicated to Agriculture, agreed to a New Vision for agriculture into the Twenty-First Century. This Vision focuses on agriculture as a business and addresses the requisites for transforming the sector to make it more internationally competitive, with the capability of improving the incomes of the farming community and contributing to strengthened food and nutrition security.

A comprehensive review of the sector identifies its importance to the economies of the Region, its strengths and weaknesses particularly in the context of the threats and challenges of the changing hemispheric and global environment and opportunities for growth and development.

Heads of Government accepted that it was critical to create an environment to encourage private sector investment in agriculture and for national initiatives to lead the thrust a transformation of the sector, with support from regional level programmes. Among the areas of focus at the national level would be the strengthening of producer/marketer organisations, promotion of production, provision of drainage and irrigation, improvement in marketing systems and associated infrastructure, the promotion of agro-processing, the control of praedial larceny and refinements in land tenure policy and regulations. Complementary regional action will be in areas of policy formulation support, human capital development with emphasis on entrepreneurial skills at various levels, research and technology generation focussed on greater productivity, marketing and agri-business facilitation, water resource management and institutional support.

The continued development of the fisheries and forestry sectors, which are based on renewable natural resources, will be underpinned by conservation of the environment and co-operation among Member States as well as neighbouring States.

Heads of Government identified the financing of developmental activities in agriculture as warranting special attention. They recognised that innovative solutions would be required. In this regard, they accepted the offer of the CDB to examine the needs and proffer recommendations to the Conference on this critical issue.

In view of the importance of agriculture to the Region, Heads of Government agreed that the mechanism established for implementation would begin its work immediately and report to Agriculture Ministers within six months. Heads of Government will keep this sector under continuous review, and mandated that a progress report be submitted to the Conference at its Eighth Inter-Sessional Meeting.

Issues Relating to the Marketing of CARICOM Bananas

Heads of Government expressed strong concern over the state of the Caribbean banana industry, given the continuing threat to its sustainability deriving from actions by the US, Ecuador, Guatemala, Honduras and Mexico, and certain European countries. They agreed to intensify their efforts to increase the level of awareness on the part of these countries, of the extremely vital importance of the banana industry to the economic and social well-being of the countries of the Caribbean.

These efforts will include taking full advantage of a special meeting on bananas, of the countries of Central America and the Caribbean, being convened in Belize in October of this year, to seek to arrive at agreed understandings between the Caribbean and Central America on this matter. This meeting is being convened at the initiative of Dr. Oscar Arias, former President of Costa Rica.

Heads of Government further expressed concern at the decision of the EU Banana Management Committee to increase the “dollar quota” for the last quarter of 1996 from 2,200,000 to 2,553,000 tonnes; and called upon the European Union to take measures to address the current over-supply of bananas in the European market.

Heads of Government took account of the exchange of correspondence between Prime Minister Patterson on behalf of CARICOM and US President Clinton and expressed their willingness to meet at any time with any country or group of countries to seek a resolution to the dispute over the European banana market.

Heads of Government also agreed to continue to work towards diversification within the banana industry including the introduction of new products.

Single Market and Economy

Heads of Government expressed their appreciation of the work undertaken by the Special Consultations co-ordinated by Prime Minister Owen Arthur of Barbados to refocus the activities towards the establishment of the CARICOM Single Market and Economy (CSME). They endorsed the recommendations emanating from these Consultations with respect to the nature of the Single Market and Economy and for the strategy for its establishment among them a recommendation to allow artistes musicians, sportsmen and media personnel to move and work throughout the Region. This is in addition to the provisions for the free movement of University Graduates in respect of who legislation has already been implemented by six Member states – Barbados, Dominica, Grenada, Guyana, Jamaica and Saint Lucia. Trinidad and Tobago has recently introduced a Bill to this effect. In the case of Guyana this legislation co-exists with previous legislation which allows for the movement of several other categories of persons. Antigua and Barbuda indicated its intention to introduce legislation shortly.

Heads of Government expressed satisfaction at the progress which has been made with respect to the implementation of Phase II of the Common External Tariff, which would take the CET to 0-25 per cent. They sympathised with the difficulties being experienced by Antigua and Barbuda in meeting the deadline for the implementation of Phase II as Hurricanes Marilyn and Luis had severely depleted the resources of that country. Antigua and Barbuda will now implement the third phase of the CET in April 1997. Saint Lucia has given an undertaking to implement Phase II by August 1996.

Heads of Government noted that significant progress has been made in the elimination of non-tariff barriers to intra-regional trade and that Member States had made a determined effort to discontinue the use of negative lists, licensing, quantitative restrictions, and of discriminatory internal taxes. Heads of Government decided that all remaining non-tariff barriers to intra-regional trade will be eliminated by December 1996.

Heads of Government agreed that the Minister of Finance, the Central Bank Governors and Planning Agencies, should meet more frequently to deal with Single Market issues. They approved a plan proposed by the Council of Central Bank Governors to address the issues of currency convertibility and greater macro-economic convergence of the economies of CARICOM. Addressing these two problems would improve the condition for the free movement of capital, integration of capital markets and monetary union. Progress in these areas has slowed because of the multiplicity of currencies and the exchange rate regimes within the Community.

Heads of Government agreed to establish a Council for Finance and Planning in order to give focussed attention to matters relating to Capital Markets and Financial Integration within the CSME.

Heads of Government welcomed the signing by the Prime Minister of St. Kitts and Nevis of the CARICOM Agreement on Social Security, during the course of the Conference.

Caribbean Investment Fund

Heads of Government received with satisfaction the Report from the Chairman of the ICWI Group of Companies Ltd., who advised that conditions appeared to be propitious for launching the Caribbean Investment Fund (CIF). They agreed to modify the original Agreement to permit the Fund to invest a part of its resources in countries of the wider region of the Association of Caribbean States (ACS). The ICWI Group plans to raise US$50 Million as initial capital for the Fund over the next year.

The original Agreement for the establishment of the Caribbean Investment Fund was signed by Heads of Government and the Chairman of the ICWI Group in Trinidad and Tobago in October 1993.

The objective of the CID is to mobilise foreign currency from extra-regional capital markets for investment in new ventures or in existing enterprises in the Region.

They welcomed the signing by a number of Member States of the Supplemental Agreement to the Agreement establishing the Caribbean Investment Fund during the course of the Conference.

Insurance and Re-Insurance

Heads of Government adopted a package of recommendations aimed at reducing the vulnerability of the region to the impact of natural occurrences, improving and expanding the Region's risk acceptance capacity, the development of strong and effective insurance regulation and regulatory capacity, and at strengthening the institutional base for national disaster mitigation, forecasting and assessment. They expressed their deep appreciation to Hon. Denis Lalor, Chairman of the ICWI Group of Companies Ltd. And the Working Party which had developed these proposals and commended the recommendations to the insurance industry in the Region.

They mandated the CARICOM Secretariat to explore the possibility of obtaining assistance from multilateral agencies to facilitate the implementation of the recommendations.

Promoting the Community's External Trade Relations

Heads of Government recognised that over the next few years the Region will be engaged in negotiating concurrently for the Free Trade Area of the Americas, its future relationship with the European Union as well as trade and economic agreements with countries and groups of countries in the hemisphere. It will also have to deal with the fulfilment of its obligations under the WTO including a new round of global negotiations and an increasing number of problems such as the threat to preferential trade arrangements it now enjoys.

Heads of Government recognised that these processes were not only comprehensive and diverse, but highly interrelated and will need to be synchronised and co-ordinated. They observed that limited human and financial resources imposed constraints on the Region's ability to effectively prepare for and participate in these negotiations.

Discussions with the Social Partners

Heads of Government held discussions with the Social Partners – the private sector, labour and the Non-Governmental Organisations. They agreed that it was essential to maintain fluid lines of communication and consultation with these partners particularly with regard to their involvement on negotiation processes.

Regional Air Transportation

Heads of Government welcomed the signing by a number of Member States of the Multilateral Air services Agreement during the course of the Conference.

They however noted the concerns expressed over recent developments in the air transportation sector and agreed that the Secretariat would make arrangements for a comprehensive study of the needs, realities and prospects of the sector. The objective of the study would be the rationalisation of air transportation in the Region and the preparation of strategic plan of options for its development. The study would also pay particular attention to air transportation in the eastern and south eastern Caribbean and consider the effects on the Region of the deregulation of air transportation occurring in the international environment and extending into the metropolitan jurisdictions in the Region.

A Charter of Civil Society

Heads of Government reaffirmed their commitment to a Charter of Civil Society and noted the progress that had been made in its drafting. They mandated the Attorneys-General and Ministers of Legal Affairs to meet as early as possible to refine the Draft Charter in order to permit its signing at the next Inter-Sessional Meeting of the Conference.

Protocol Amending the Structure of the Community's Institutions and Operations

Heads of Government considered the Draft Protocol intended to revise the organisational structure, institutional arrangements and voting procedures of the Community with a view to expediting decision-making and implementation. They agreed on the need for further examination of the proposals. They therefore mandated their Attorneys-General and Ministers responsible for Legal Affairs to examine the technical aspects of the Protocol with a view to finalising it for signature at the next Inter-Sessional Meeting of the Conference.

Caribbean Commission

Heads of Government, in considering the strengthening of the decision-making machinery of CARICOM, took note of the undertaking by the Governments of Antigua and Barbuda and Trinidad and Tobago to jointly prepare a paper on the establishment of a Caribbean Commission, along the lines suggested by the West Indian Commission, for consideration of Heads of Governments at their next Inter-Sessional Meeting.

Assembly of Caribbean Community Parliamentarians

Heads of Government welcomed with satisfaction the convening the Inaugural Meeting of the Assemble of Caribbean Community Parliamentarians (ACCP) which was held in Barbados on 27 May 1996. They also welcomed the fact that the Governments of Montserrat and St. Vincent and the Grenadines had signed during the course of the Conference, the Agreement for the establishment of an Assembly of Caribbean Community Parliamentarians.

They also reaffirmed their strong support for the sovereignty and territorial integrity of Guyana.

The Situation in Montserrat

Heads of Government pledged the Community's continuing support for the Government and people of Montserrat and urged the positive response of the people of the Community to assisting the Government and people of Montserrat, particularly in the areas of health and agriculture. They noted with concern, the escalating difficulties being experienced by the Government and people of Montserrat in the face of volcanic activity in that country.

They expressed their satisfaction with the co-ordinating role played by the Caribbean Emergency Disaster Response Agency (CDERA) in channelling the Region's assistance to Montserrat.

They noted the efforts so far undertaken by the CARICOM Secretariat to co-ordinate the provision of additional medical personnel. They also noted the urgent need for prefabricated housing units in Montserrat and welcomed the assistance being provided by the CDB in this area.

They further noted the efforts of the Caribbean Agricultural Research and Development Institute (CARDI) to co-ordinate activities geared at providing technical support in agriculture particularly in relation to irrigation systems.

Heads of Government agreed to allow free movement of Montserratians within their respective countries irrespective of qualification and without the need for work permits in the CARICOM Region; and noted that the Government of Montserrat would be approaching individual Member States on a bilateral basis in respect of specific areas of assistance.

Heads of Government requested the Chief Minister to extend to the people of Montserrat the assurances of the Region's solidarity with them at this critical and difficult time.

St. Kitts and Nevis

Heads of Government expressed their deep concern at developments in St. Kitts and Nevis regarding the announcement by the Premier of Nevis that steps are being taken to separate Nevis from St. Kitts and Nevis.

Heads of Government were troubled at the possible fragmentation of St. Kitts and Nevis which such a move would represent and were equally concerned about its effect upon CARICOM as a whole.

Heads of Government urged that the constitutional process be respected and followed by all parties; and further urged that all parties remain open to efforts to reconcile their differences in the interest of the peoples of St. Kitts and Nevis and CARICOM as a whole.

In this connection, they mandated Hon. Lester Bird, Prime Minister of Antigua and Barbuda as Chairman of the Conference to continue his efforts to mediate between the parties with a view to finding a mutually satisfactory solution to the current impasse.

Heads of Government also authorised their Chairman to co-opt such assistance as he may require, to carry out the mandate, and to pursue with the Commonwealth Secretariat its offer to provide such assistance as may be required.

Development of West Indies Cricket

Heads of Government received a report from the Chairman of the Sub-Committee on the Development of West Indies Cricket which the Conference has established at its Seventh Inter-Sessional Meeting.

Heads of Government were encouraged by the new direction and thrust of the current administration of the West Indies Cricket Board, and pledged further and deep consultation with the Board at the earliest opportunity in order to agree on measures which Member States might take to re-establish West Indian cricket supremacy.

Developments Regarding the University of the West Indies

Heads of Government received with satisfaction a progress report on the new system of governance devised by the University of the West Indies, to focus teaching and research on the development needs of the Region and which at the same time endeavours to increase the cost effectiveness of the University's operations.

Heads of Government received a report from the Commonwealth Secretary-General on the situation in The Gambia, as well as agreements reached by the Commonwealth Ministerial Action Group (CMAG) at their 24-25 June Meeting on that situation. They were also informed by the Prime Minister of St. Vincent and the Grenadines concerning initiatives being undertaken by himself in consultation with the Secretary-General of the Commonwealth with regard to assisting the Government of The Gambia in the restoration of democracy. They welcomed these initiatives and expressed the hope that they would result in the development of a constitutional framework befitting the democratic process in The Gambia.

Sierra Leone

Nigeria

Heads of Government heard from the Commonwealth Secretary-General on developments in Nigeria and the recent meeting of the Commonwealth Ministerial Action Group. They took note of the Report, the Military Regime in Nigeria had adopted certain measures in response to the concerns expressed therein. They however stressed their concern over the persistence of human rights violations by the Military Regime in that country. It was agreed that many fundamental changes remained to be made by the Nigerian Authorities if the imposition of sanctions is to be avoided.

Heads of Government reaffirmed their commitment to the decisions adopted at the Auckland Commonwealth Heads of Government Meeting concerning the imposition of “soft sanctions” against Nigeria and agreed to join Jamaica and Canada in the impositions of sanctions if appropriate reforms were not introduced in the near future.

Haiti

Heads of Government considered developments in Haiti and the Region’s relations with that country. They welcomed the decision of the UN Security Council to maintain a UN Support Mission in Haiti in light of the security requirements of the country. They

The Illicit Traffic in Drugs

Heads of Government noted that the Caribbean is being increasingly used for the transshipment of illegal drugs from the major production centres to the major centres of consumption. They took note of the increased boldness of drug traffickers in the waters and the air-space of Community Member States. CARICOM States are, as a consequence, paying a heavy price as a result of the trade in and abuse of illegal drugs.

Heads of Government noted that the problem posed a major threat to the political, social and economic stability of the Region and is a major factor affecting governance in the Region.

They reaffirmed their commitment to an integrated and co-ordinated approach among their Member States and also the various organisations and agencies to deal with the problem.

In this regard they took note of the report of the Meeting on Drug Control Co-operation in the Caribbean held in Barbados on 15 – 17 May 1996 by the United Nations Drug Control Programme and recommended the Plan of Action which was agreed at the Meeting for implementation.

They also noted with satisfaction the statement of the G-7 pertaining to the importance of the integration of developing countries in the global trading system as an essential element of sustainable growth and development. They welcomed the G-7 commitment to a continued Enhanced Structural Adjustment Facility (ESAF) as the centrepiece of the International Monetary Fund's support for the poorest countries and also endorsed the G-7's position regarding the IMF Managing Director's proposals for greater concessionality in ESAF lending. In this respect, they expressed strong support for Guyana, as the most indebted CARICOM country, as a beneficiary of this programme whilst urging greater debt relief for all the indebted countries of the Region.

The Hemispheric Summit on the Sustainable Development (December 1996, Bolivia)

Heads of Government reviewed the status of preparation for the Summit on Sustainable Development which is scheduled to convene in Bolivia in December 1996. ## Appreciation

Heads of Government expressed their gratitude to the Government and people of Barbados for having hosted their Seventeenth Meeting. They particularly expressed their appreciation of the fact that Barbados was hosting a second Meeting of the Conference in two years, on this occasion, as a result of the inability of the Government of Antigua and Barbuda to do so because of the impact of Hurricane Luis on that country.
